

RRCrew Financial Agreement Form

Crew is an expensive sport and does not get any funding from Loudoun County Public School system. The following is required fair-share fee this spring season, per student athlete. Please pay online at rockridgecrew.com.

Required Fair Share Fees	Amount ($)	Due Date
Spring Registration	200	Jan 27, 2019
Spring Payment1	375	Feb 17, 2019
USRowing.org Basic Membership	10	Feb 17, 2019
Spring Payment2	375	Mar 17, 2019
*Fundraising Commitment	400	Apr 17, 2019
Spirit Wear (new student athlete only)	(est 200)	TBD

*Fundraising is required to make up the difference between the dues and expenses per spring season. Each student athlete has a commitment of $400 to help offset the cost of Crew. The ERGathon is the spring activity that allows students the opportunity to fulfill this commitment. A family may choose to opt-out of fund raising activities by donating $400. Note the fundraising donations are tax deductible as we have IRS 501c3 status.

**Spirit Wear is the team uniform. New student athletes to Rock Ridge Crew are required to purchase. Returning athletes will need as select set of items to purchase. (TBD)

There are other costs, but are not required. However each of these are highly recommended.

Highly Recommended Fees	Amount ($)	Event Date
SRAA (aka Nationals) only if a boat qualifies at States.	TBD	May 24-25, 2019
Crew End of Season Banquet (per person)	(est 35)	TBD

Financial Obligation:

I recognize that participation in Rock Ridge Crew represents a season commitment and as the Parent/Guardian, I am responsible for the total amount due, regardless of practice/racing frequency. My child cannot participate with Rock Ridge Crew if I do not meet the financial obligation. This agreement can be terminated without penalty if the athlete has a medical issue and is unable to continue, and all past dues have been paid. Only after consulting with the Rock Ridge Crew Boosters Board will the participant be allowed to cancel this contract for any other reason during the season, by paying the cancellation fee of 25% of their remaining balance of the season, plus all past due amounts. By my signature below, I agree to abide by the items set forth and agree to my financial responsibility as a member of the team.
